CLAIM OR CLAIMS

1. We claim the upper angular shape of the cart or grip that finds the center of gravity of the barrels when lifting the barrel
2. We clam the rounded or curve shape of the bottom of the cart that helps the barrel to be locked in place and helps the barrel not to slip to a side when carried
3. We claim the hook on the top that will fasten the barrel from the top in place
4. We claim the different positions of the hook that will aloud fasten different size barrels.